“Ceremonial Bowls”

Launched by Veteran Artist

"Ceremonial Bowls", a collection of exclusive ceramics, was launched by Shri Devi Prasad, a veteran master studio potter, at Osho World galleria, Ansal Plaza, New Delhi, exhibition at Osho World galleria sometime in future.

Congratulating the artists, Shri Prasad said that pottery should not just be a mere piece of art but should have utility as well.

on 10 April 2005. For the first time four studio potters - Dipalee Daroz, Ela Mukherjee, Rahul Kumar and Abhay Pandit - displayed their creations together at Osho World. So "Ceremonial Bowls" became a celebration of their artistic expression.

Shri Devi Prasad expressed his pleasure at the collection of distinctive ceramics displayed at the galleria adding that he was unaware of such a serene and beautiful place existing in Delhi. He expressed his wish to hold his own ceramic Osho, the enlightened master, has given many discourses on creativity as an expression of meditation. Osho says creativity is not something that can be confined to painting, dancing, music or arts; it is an attitude. Bringing out the essence of creativity, Osho says, "Creativity is the quality that you bring to the activity you are doing. It is an attitude, an inner approach -- how you look at things. Creativity means loving whatsoever you do -- enjoying, celebrating it, as a gift of God!"

Mulla: Top Spiritual Humourist

It's called 'the fool's day' but 1 April at Osho World has been re-named as Mulla Nasrudin Day. Osho said the Mulla was the top spiritual prankster and humourist. This year, three poets - Rajesh Chetan, Yusuf Bharadwaj and Ritu Goyal - regaled Osholovers at Osho World Galleria, New Delhi, with their hilarious poetry. Everyone was in splits as all three out performed each other with their comic verses and satire. The event was also enhanced with the opening of an exhibition of glassware and was reported in many newspapers such as The Indian Express, The Hindu and Asian Age.
